NADA Miami Beach Welcomes 23 First-Time Exhibitors in 2017

BY NICHOLAS FORREST | AUGUST 24, 2017

NADA Miami Beach will bring together 108 exhibitors from 36 cities in 16 different countries, including 23 new exhibitors, for its 15th edition in 2017 from December 10 at the Deauville Beach Resort. Dedicated to showcasing new art and celebrating rising talents, NADA Miami Beach is the only major American art fair to be produced by a non-profit organization.

“We are excited to present the exhibitors for the fifteenth edition of NADA Miami Beach and pleased to welcome an increased international presence, especially from Colombia, Germany and Poland, as well as 23 first-time exhibitors,” said Heather Hubbs, NADA Executive Director.

“NADA was founded to fill a void in the art world by providing a community where lesser-known international galleries, emerging artists, artist-run spaces, and both young and established galleries can co-exist. We continue to work towards creating new opportunities to support our galleries, with exhibitor prizes, artist awards, project spaces, and deeper partnerships with Miami institutions.”
